As in the song sung by Michel Fugain: “Les soirs d’été/Ont un parfum magique/Un gout sucré-salé...” “summer evenings have a magical perfume, a salty & sugary taste...”

In Narbonne it suffices to stroll on the banks of the canal or on Narbonne Plage sea front to relive these unforgettable sensations, ones that will stay with you all through the year.

As well as having a unique atmosphere, the town is the host to many popular & must see events, open to all ages & all tastes. Our aim once again this year is to continue to provide a program of popular, bold & eclectic events.

On the program: urban sports & thrills with NEXT, world music with Elizik’, new sounds with the contemporary festival “Musiques au Présent”, lazing around at the musical siestas in the parks, sports competitions in the town centre, party time concerts on the sea front at Narbonne Plage, guided tours of the museums & heritage sites... Last but not least three days of music & fun provided by the Barques en Scène festival, the highlight of an unforgettable summer.

During the festival we might also hear Michel Fugain continue his song: “Et si je regarde mieux/T’as encore du soleil au fond des yeux”, “and if I look deeper, you’ve still got sun in your eyes”. We hope that Narbonne with brighten up your summer too.

Have an excellent summer!

(inter-regional Occitan theatre).

*Adaptation: Marcèu Esquie.
Direction: Jean-Loup Roqueplan.
Actors: Yves Durand, Bruno Cécillon, Jean-Louis Blénet, Gilles Buonomo.*

Founded in 1974, Occitane culture is at the artistic heart of the company La Rampe TIO. Putting on a Molière play in Occitane, using four male actors to play sixteen characters is quite a feat & guarantees an exhilarating spectacle! The production is spirited one, the actors savouring the language & colourful situations. A teleprompter will enable you to follow the play in French without detracting from the performance.

VISITS & DISCOVERY

MONUMENTS & MUSEUMS

ACTIVITIES

MARKETS & GASTRONOMY

MAPS & INFORMATION
The exhibition brings together the works of Claude Viallet, reputed artist born in 1936 in Nimes, where he lives & works to this day. One of the founders of the “Supports-surfaces” movement, in 1970 Viallet started to work on industrial tarpaulin on which he repeated in infinity the same abstract form, which became his signature. Repeated on different surfaces at regular intervals, this neutral motif leads to a reflection on the meaning of gesture, colour & support.

L’Aspirateur-Contemporary Art Space
Avenue Hubert-Mouly. Closed July 14th & August 15th.
Tickets:4€
Included in the pass”Monumentale Narbonne”.
Free under certain conditions (proof needed).
The IN SITU show is dedicated to presenting the contemporary artists & major sites of the region, putting together an itinerary of exhibitions.
The initiative of the association Le-Passe Muraille & supported by the Region Occitanie, the community & participating sites.
The work by Claude Viallet from the Archbishop’s Palace being a hommage to Zeuxis or Zeuxippos, Greek Heraklian painter living in 5 BC. The story goes that during an artistic battle with Parrhasios, he painted a bunch of grapes so realistically birds came to peck at them. His adversary retaliated with a painting of a curtain. Zeuxis, not present during the painting of the canvas, demanded that the curtain be drawn to reveal his piece of work! Rapidly realizing his mistake he admitted defeat: he had fooled the birds but Parrhasios had fooled the man.

Archbishop’s Palace, Salle des Consuls & Palais Neuf, Art Collections.

THEATRICAL GUIDED TOUR
« A CANAL TO SAVE NARBONNE »

Suitable for all ages, a lively & amusing theatrical tour through the turbulent history of the town. From antiquity to the 19th century Narbonne owes its prosperity to its status as a port. It became a privileged crossroad for commerce between the region of Toulouse & the Mediterranean world. However, over the centuries have had to fight against the capricious River Aude & the silting up of its mouth. In the 17th century new hope was born with a canal project to link the Atlantic to “Canal Royal en Languedoc”, renamed the “Canal du Midi” during the revolution. This year we celebrate the 350th anniversary of the canal.

THE ARCHBISHOP’S PALACE & THE SAINT-JUST & SAINT-PASTEUR CATHEDRAL

With its eight centuries of history the Archbishop’s Palace constitutes with the Saint-Just & Saint-Pasteur cathedral an architectural ensemble unique in France. Parts of the Old Palace, (of Roman origin) & the New Palace (of Gothic origin) merge into the Passage de l’Ancre & today house the two museums of art & archaeology.

Visit with the pass “Palais-cathédrale:

GILLES–AYCELIN KEEP (DONJON)

Built under the archdiocese of Archbishop Gilles-Aycelin from 1290 to 1311, it constitutes the main tower of the Archbishop’s Palace. Discover the hemispherical ground-floor room & its successive floors leading up to the main terrace from which at 41 meters high you can enjoy an impressive panoramic view of the town, its monuments & the surrounding hills.

Access: Archbishop’s palace reception hall.

OLD PALACE ARCHAEOLOGICAL COLLECTIONS

A visit of the Old Palace reveals Medieval areas of exceptional riches: the ancient chapel of the Madeleine (1273) with 15th century murals, the floor to ceiling paintings revealing unique decoration dating from the first half of the 13th century, the Cour de la Madeleine & its spectacular view over the Théodard bell tower & the sides of the cathedral...

The Old Palace also houses prehistoric & antique collections, notably the largest collection outside of Italy of Roman paintings found at the Clos de la Lombarde archaeological site.

Access: Archbishop’s palace reception hall
NEW PALACE ART COLLECTIONS

The building of The New Palace started in the 14th century was conceived as a fortress. Today it houses the the prestigious rooms of the Consuls & the Synodes as well as the archbishop's appartments fitted out in 1632 & transformed into an art museum in the 19th century. Presenting a fine ensemble of classical European paintings, an exceptional collection of antique ceramics & two rooms of Oriental paintings unique in France.

THE SAINT-JUST & SAINT-PASTEUR CATHEDRAL TREASURES

Built in 1272, Narbonne cathedral is is a major example of Gothic Meridional style & one of the most beautiful religious edifices in France. Stand out features include the unique choir area of impressive scale, furnished with pews & an 18th century organ underneath the vertiginous 40 meter high vaulted ceiling. An essential place to visit are the remains of the sculpted altar-piece in the Notre-Dame-de-Bethléém chapel near to the archbishop’s tombs, a master-piece of 14th century sculpture.
